9/10 Year Old All-Star Voting Procedures

Voting will be done with AAA Managers and Coaches. The Manager and one Coach from each team will vote. All votes count equal. Managers and Coaches may vote for their own players sixteen must be voted on each ballot. The top 16 players will make one of the All-Star teams. The Managers and Coaches along with the President, Player Agent and the Minor VP will then meet to determine what players are assigned to each team. It is important to remember that the 9/10A Manager may take up to 14 players and ALL could be one of the top 16 voted on. Each Manager is free to select any player not in the top 16 provided all of the players voted on are selected to a team. 9/10A Manager picks their entire team FIRST and may take ANY player on the selected list or non selected list.

10/11, 11/12, 12/13/14 and 15/16 Year Old All-Star Voting Procedures

Voting will be done by players

8 must be voted on each ballet

The top 8 players in the age group are assigned to All-Star Team

Those voting can't vote for players on their own team unless the Division has less than 4 teams

Managers of each All-Star team will pick the remainder of the team and Coaches pending review by a committee comprised of the League President, the VP and Player Agent

The number of 11 year olds pulled up to the 11/12 team may be limited based on the number of 11 tears who sign up.

Ten year olds will not be permitted to play up to 10/11 team

All- Star Manager Selection

A. Order of selection (Minor and Major Baseball only)

- I. 9/10 Minor Managers will choose a team in the following order based on the regular season standings. Minor AAA 1ST place finish, Minor AAA2nd place finish. For all other age groups Manager will be voted on players. Players may vote for their Managers and Coaches from their own team. Thereafter if necessary, the Board of Directors will decide on a Manager. All Managers and Coaches have the opportunity to submit an application to manage.
- II. In the event a Manager declines, is not approved by the board, or withdraws after their acceptance (depending on timing: see below)
- III. Managers may NOT voluntarily trade entire teams or players after formally selecting a team. If there are mitigating circumstances to justify such a move, then the final determination will be made by the board of directors.
- IV. A Manager All- Star Application Form will be used for written request of a specific team. This would be done prior to the actual selection of the players of each team.

B

- I. Manager must give written notice to the board of Directors for any reason for withdrawing once he/she formally applies.
- II. An event of withdrawal may have consequences depending on the reason and will be up to the board to decide if any.
- III. Those who sign up All-Star, but decline to participate will forfeit their eligibility for All-Star managing and coaching through their next playing season or one year. Extenuating circumstances resulting in the forfeiture of All-Starr coaching privileges may be brought before the board of directors for consideration at the next scheduled board meeting immediately following the forfeiture.
- IV. Primary coach of record (the one named first on the acceptance form and affidavit) will be named the new Manager in the event of a Manager withdrawal if it occurs after submittal of the affidavit to the District Administrator. If done prior to the submission of the affidavit the DA, then the selection would go to the next team Manager in order of finish as cited above.
